Food Standards Australia New Zealand coordinates and monitors food related recalls on behalf of the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC). The ACCC, in turn, is obliged to satisfy the Parliamentary Secretary to the Treasurer, who is responsible for Consumer Affairs that a voluntary recall has been conducted satisfactorily and that consumers have been protected.

On 15/02/2023 04:09 PM, your company undertook a recall of the above product. To finalise our records, it is a requirement that information is provided to FSANZ through the final report. This recall may be closed unsatisfactorily if no report is submitted.

This email is to remind you that the date for providing the final report has passed. Please complete and return the attached report by COB 21 April 2023 so we can close the recall satisfactorily with the ACCC.

This email is to remind you that the date for providing the final report has passed.

If you have any questions about the report please call me on [REDACTED] s 22 .

Thank you for your assistance.

Kind regards
