Dear [REDACTED] s 22

Just checking that the recall documentation is finalised. If not can you send it through to FSANZ.

A point of sale notification is fine. Can you confirm the product is Glendenning Brand eggs?

Let me know if you need any assistance.

Dear [REDACTED] s 22,

As discussed, further details re positive results. Two samples were positive for Salmonella Enteritidis:

- A sample from shed 1 - Conveyor belt
- A sample from shed 6 - Sorting table

Please cc me in on the recall notice you send to FSANZ.

Dear [REDACTED] s 22

As discussed, NSW Health and NSW DPI have been investigating a cluster of locally acquired Salmonella Enteritidis cases in the greater Sydney area. To date 23 cases have been linked by whole genome sequencing.

This is a rare type of Salmonella that is not common in Australia. The NSW Food Authority was advised today that Salmonella Enteritidis was found on the Eggz On the Run farm at Cobbitty. I understand that those eggs are processed at Boko Eggs Eastern Creek facility using Boko eggs and Glendenning egg cartons.

You need to recall these eggs. Please contact FSANZ urgently on [REDACTED] s 22 [REDACTED] to complete that recall

Details of the recall process are available at:

If you have any questions I can be contacted on [REDACTED] s 22 [REDACTED] .
