Thanks Lisa. Let's lock in 24th in Canberra. Start around 10am to give people time to get here. We can buy in some lunch obviously and teleconference people in that can't attend.

Need to get into people's diaries.

I think that from now on go back to the respondents. If nobody has responded from a State go back to the ISFR person. Make sense?

Let's also send out a draft program ASAP.

Regards

Hi Scott

That latest email finally produced some responses. I've produced a table indicating the various preferences. It looks like the 24th is the preferred date (which suits me because it gives us a bit more time and flexibility). You will see that so far there is really only two of the jurisdictions that prefer Melbourne as a venue. I'm thinking that it might be easier to just stick with Canberra, given there doesn't appear to be a strong preference for Melbourne...what do you reckon?
