

Workshop on NBT for Regulatory Considerations Draft Program (as of August 5, 2013)

Date & Time: 13:00-18:15. On Tuesday, October 15, 2013

Meeting venue: Station Conference Tokyo , Japan

Meeting organizers: ILSI Japan, The LMO Committee of Japanese Society of Breeding,
The 178 Committee of the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science, and Gene Research
Center University of Tsukuba

Meeting objectives:

Share the progress in plant breeding using NBT and regulatory considerations in Australia, EC,
Japan and the USA.

Draft Agenda:

13:00-13:10 Opening remarks: TBD

Session I: Progress in NBT Chair; Prof. Ryo Ohsawa, University of Tsukuba

13:10-13:50 Overview of NBT and regulatory considerations
Dr. Maria A Lusser, Institute for Prospective Technological Studies, EC

13:50-14:30 Case examples of plant breeding using NBT
Dr. Gary Rudgers, Dow AgroSciences

14:30-15:00 Utilization of plant RNA virus for plant breeding
Dr. Nobuyuki Yoshikawa, University of Iwate

14:45-15:00 Break

Session II: Regulatory considerations Chair; Prof. Ryo Ohsawa, University of Tsukuba

15:30-16:10 Current progress in breeding using NBT and regulatory considerations in Australia
TBD [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

16:10-16:50 Current progress in breeding using NBT and regulatory considerations in the USA.

Dr. Sally L. McCammon, Biotechnology Regulatory Services Animal and Plant
Health Inspection Services, United States Department of Agriculture

16:50-17:00 Break

Session III: Panel Discussion Chair: Prof. Hiroshi Kamada, University of Tsukuba

17:00-18:00 All speakers and chairs

18:00-18:10 Closing remarks: TBD

18:15-20:30 Receptions