To whom it may concern, What a preposterous action on human rights to take away ones freedom of choice. There WILL be an uprising of the people should such a ridiculous action be implicated. Why not have a referendum for a change instead of passing outlandish bills at 2am in the morning. Let the people have their say and stop censoring left lunacy propaganda in order to deceive the people. We have every right to eat what we choose, support local farmers and even grow our own fresh produce. Stop this BS or feel the almighty wrath of "WE the people."
