RE:FSANZ A1193 All 'fresh' fruits and vegetables to be Irradiated

As a concerned citizen, and someone who eats a lot of fruit and vegetables, I would like to make the comment that I am completely against having all fresh fruits and vegetables irradiated.

I don't believe that irradiating foods with any level of radiation is safe. I don't trust that the science is sound. If this submission is approved and this goes ahead, I will permanently boycott any organisation that is associated with this process.

I want to take my own risks with the food I buy. I don't want someone making decisions like this on my behalf.

Sincerely,
